Subject: Request to allow the crew members to travel by Air via Bangalore or Chennai from Vijaywada after performing 14 days ON/OFF duty at east coast.

Respected Sir,

This is in reference with the crew members performing their ON/OFF duty from Mumbai to East Coast, requesting to allow travelling by Air via Bangalore or Chennai, while coming back after performing 14 days rig duty from east coast to Mumbai or their native place.

Presently the crew members are travelling from Mumbai to Rajahmundry via Hyderabad and from Rajahmundry crew goes to the Rig Sagar Ratna by chopper, its take around 1½ to 2 hrs. While coming back from Rig Sagar Ratna after performing 14 days duty, whole crew is getting down at Vijaywada Airport latest or before 1.30 pm, and then the chopper goes empty to Rajahmundry base.

With the present route, “Vijaywada – Hyderabad - Mumbai”, we need to spend minimum four (4) hours in Vijaywada airport i.e. reaching Hyderabad at 19.00 hrs. further the first connecting flight to Mumbai from Hyderabad is not before 21.00 hrs. Hence reaching Mumbai at around 23.30 hrs. It takes minimum ten hours to reach Mumbai.

There are planes available to travel to Mumbai via Banglore or Chennai at 2.00 pm, which is before Vijaywada - Hyderabad flight. Travelling via Banglore or Chennai, crew can reach Mumbai or their place of residence on the same day earliest by 18.00 hrs. crewmembers travelling from Vijaywada via Hyderabad, plane reaches Mumbai at around 11.30 pm, beyond this it is very difficult to reach home for the employees staying in Panvel and Uran.

We request your esteemed authority to allow the crew members to travel from Vijaywada to Mumbai or to their native place via Banglore or Chennai. When this will not incur any additional financial implication; it will certainly make us reach home a day early.

Thanking you,
Yours faithfully,

e/c
